

INTRODUCTION

EBONÉ BELL

My name is (Your Full Name), and I am the (position) for (organization), and it's my pleasure to welcome you to today's program.

Eboné (pronounced Eb-oh-nay Bell) is the former editor and founder of Tagg Magazine, an award-winning print publication and media company for LGBTQ women across the country. She was featured in Forbes Magazine as an "Inspiring Black Entrepreneur Changing Our World."

And that's exactly her mission: To create change and leave a stamp on this world. One of those stamps includes starting a student group for LGBTQ people of color while attending University of Maryland College Park. Twenty-one years later the group is still going strong.

Eboné continues to be a dynamic community leader, speaker, and trailblazer. She enjoys sharing her knowledge and passion for diversity issues, leadership, activism, and entrepreneurship. When she's not doing that, she's focused on self-care, staying hydrated, and living her best life.

Please help me welcome Eboné Bell
